Since 1966, the Ridgecrest Lions Club has raised charitable funds through this Holiday Flag Program. 100% of the funds raised are used to help those in need. These local funds have helped provide eye exams and eyeglasses, and helped the Lions purchase a Spot Vision Screening device that we are using in our local schools for youth vision screenings, as well as screening for adults at events. The Lions also supported local students for a Statewide High School Student Speakers Contest. With your support, the Lions have helped the Burroughs Band, DART, Senior Programs and needs, Adopt-a-School, Holiday food and gift baskets, funding for hospital equipment and many other things. The Lions support the City of Hope, diabetes research, guide dogs, Lions Camp for the Deaf and Walk for ALZ. Thank you for helping us serve this community for 75 years.

We ask you to join us, or continue your support for this program. Help us on our quest to do what is right and good within our community and throughout the world. The Lions Flag Program is $120 a year, per flag. The American Flag is displayed twelve times throughout the year along with a thank you ad in the paper in June. For questions or comments on the Flag Program, please call Lion Michael Spahn, 925-548-0304 or mspahn.09@gmail.com.
