Reliable • Friendly • Precise

I am Barb Hill and I love working with small businesses. Most owners don't start a business because they love bookkeeping. When you're busy serving customers and putting out fires, the numbers can slip to the bottom of the list. But when your books aren't current, decision-making gets fuzzy: pricing, cash flow, taxes, hiring, and growth plans all get harder. Over time, that lack of visibility can quietly reduce profitability and the long-term value of the business.

My approach is simple: keep your records accurate, your reporting understandable, and your month-to-month picture consistent - so you always know where you stand and can confidently make next-step decisions!

So many people have told us they have never been in before and were uncertain whether they would like Mediterranean food. They were surprised they did! So we have been asking folks to tell others and here are some. Come see for yourself.

Grabbing a bite with colleagues before making the drive to LA. Glad we stopped as it was quick and tasty. At our table had beef shawarma, gyro and chicken bowls. When back in Ridgecrest would not hesitate to dine here again. M.K.

Still the same great place we love when we are in town. The food is fresh and well made. We were able to get a child's shrimp over rice for my mother in law and she ate 2/3 of it. So she really liked it. And I liked my gyro and my husband loved his souvlaki. And you meet the coolest people there while you're waiting. Lara F.

Simple Peach Cobbler

- 1/2 cup unsalted butter, melted
- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 2 cups sugar
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- Pinch salt
- 1 cup milk
- 4 cups peeled, pitted and thinly sliced fresh peaches
- 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
- Several dashes ground cinnamon and/or ground nutmeg

Directions

Preheat oven to 375 degrees.
 Pour the melted butter into a 13 by 9 by 2-inch baking dish.
 In a medium bowl, combine the flour, 1 cup sugar, the baking powder, and the salt and mix well. Stir in the milk, mixing until just combined.
 Pour this batter over the butter but do not stir them together.
 In a small saucepan, combine the peaches, lemon juice, and remaining cup of sugar and bring to a boil over high heat, stirring constantly. Pour the peaches over the batter but do not stir them together. Sprinkle with cinnamon and/or nutmeg.
 Bake in the preheated oven for 40 to 45 minutes or until the top is golden-brown. Serve warm or cold.
