Reliable • Friendly • Precise

I am Barb Hill and I love working with small businesses. Most owners don't start a business because they love bookkeeping. When you're busy serving customers and putting out fires, the numbers can slip to the bottom of the list. But when your books aren't current, decision-making gets fuzzy: pricing, cash flow, taxes, hiring, and growth plans all get harder. Over time, that lack of visibility can quietly reduce profitability and the long-term value of the business.

My approach is simple: keep your records accurate, your reporting understandable, and your month-to-month picture consistent - so you always know where you stand and can confidently make next-step decisions!

Strawberry Pie

1 store-bought large pie crust room temperature

1 cup granulated sugar

2 Tbsp. cornstarch

Pinch of kosher salt

3 lb. fresh strawberries, hulled, sliced

2 Tbsp. pectin

2 Tbsp. fresh lemon juice

Carefully unfurl dough into a 9" pie dish. Press dough into bottom and up sides of dish, leaving a 1" overhang and trimming any excess. Tuck overhang under edge of dish; crimp with a fork. Refrigerate until cold, about 30 minutes.

Place a rack in center of oven; preheat to 375°. Place a piece of parchment or foil over dough so bottom and sides are covered. Fill pie dish with pie weights, dried beans, or rice.

Bake crust 15 minutes. Remove pie weights and parchment and continue to bake until golden brown and bottom is dry to the touch, about 10 minutes more. Let cool. Meanwhile, in a small saucepan over medium heat, cook sugar, cornstarch, salt, and 1 pound strawberries, stirring occasionally, until you start to see steam, about 2 minutes. Smash strawberries until a puree forms. Continue to cook, smashing occasionally, until slightly darkened in color and thicker, about 8 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in pectin. Cook over medium heat, stirring, until mixture thickens, about 1 minute more.

Transfer strawberry mixture to a large bowl. Add lemon juice and stir to combine. Add remaining 2 pounds strawberries and fold until strawberries are coated. Pour filling into crust; smooth with a spatula. Refrigerate until set, at least 3 hours or up to overnight.

Reliable • Friendly • Precise

I am Barb Hill and I love working with small businesses. Most owners don't start a business because they love bookkeeping. When you're busy serving customers and putting out fires, the numbers can slip to the bottom of the list.

But when your books aren't current, decision-making gets fuzzy: pricing, cash flow, taxes, hiring, and growth plans all get harder. Over time, that lack of visibility can quietly reduce profitability and the long-term value of the business.

My approach is simple: keep your records accurate, your reporting understandable, and your month-to-month picture consistent - so you always know where you stand and can confidently make next-step decisions!
