Well, Hello Again, Ridgecrest!

Same familiar face. New business. A whole new chapter!

After 17 years in the tax profession in Ridgecrest, I wanted to pop in and say HELLO!

For those wondering where I landed, I've opened my own business!

Although I moved away over 12 years ago, Ridgecrest still holds a special place in my heart. It's been wonderful reconnecting with familiar faces!

I've created a small, boutique, fully virtual firm built around putting clients first.

That means personal attention, open communication, returned calls, and a tax professional who genuinely cares.

Crab Cakes

1 tablespoon vegetable oil
1/4 cup finely chopped shallot
1/4 cup finely chopped celery
1/4 cup finely chopped red bell pepper
1/3 cup panko bread crumbs
2 teaspoons Old Bay Seasoning
Kosher salt and freshly ground pepper tp taske
1 pound jumbo lump crabmeat
1 large egg, beaten
4 teaspoons minced fresh chives
4 teaspoons minced fresh basil
1 /s teaspoon chopped fresh dill
For the Sauce:
2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice, plus lemon wedges for serving
1 tablespoon minced fresh chives
1 tablespoon minced fresh basil
1 teaspoon Old Bay Seasoning
1 cup mayo

Make the crab cakes: Heat the vegetable oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Add the shallot, celery and bell pepper; cook until just tender, 3 to 4 minutes. Stir in the panko, 1 teaspoon Old Bay, 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon pepper; cook until the panko is lightly golden, 2 to 3 minutes. Transfer to a large bowl and let cool.

Add the crabmeat, beaten egg,add sause, chives, basil and the remaining 1 teaspoon Old Bay to the bowl. Fold together until well combined, breaking up some of the crab.

Preheat the oven to 425°. Line 2 baking sheets with parchment paper. Using a 1-ounce scoop, mound balls of the crab mixture (18 to 20 balls) on the baking sheets, 2 inches apart; flatten them slightly. Refrigerate 10 minutes.

Bake, rotating the pans halfway through, until the crab cakes are golden brown and cooked through, 15 to 18 minutes.

Reliable • Friendly • Precise

I am Barb Hill and I love working with small businesses. Most owners don't start a business because they love bookkeeping. When you're busy serving customers and putting out fires, the numbers can slip to the bottom of the list. But when your books aren't current, decision-making gets fuzzy: pricing, cash flow, taxes, hiring, and growth plans all get harder. Over time, that lack of visibility can quietly reduce profitability and the long-term value of the business.

My approach is simple: keep your records accurate, your reporting understandable, and your month-to-month picture consistent - so you always know where you stand and can confidently make next-step decisions!
